Hanska then expressed interest in remaining a member of the Tomahawk East League even though the current by laws of the League state that all members must be classified as Class C by the MBA. A motion was made by Bruce Woitas of Sleepy Eye, 2nd by Leon Hillesheim of Leavenworth to change the Tomahawk East League By Laws to read:

“If any active league member is reclassified to Class B status by the MBA, it may petition the League to remain an active member of the TEL for two seasons with a majority vote of the remaining teams of the Tomahawk East League. If after two seasons, the team has not been reclassified to Class C status by the MBA, the League will reassess said team's status within the league and by a majority vote may revoke said team's membership from the Tomahawk East League.”

Motion carried unanimously.

Any league playoff game interrupted by rain or other outside force shall be suspended and resumed at the point of interruption at a later date until nine innings (seven innings if the mercy rule is in effect) have been completed."
